PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Don Snyder addressed the Commission with issues of hunger and poverty. He stated his church, First Christian Church, gives out 80-100 food bags monthly to Raleigh County residents. He added there are so many children that qualify for free lunch in Raleigh County that all students now receive free breakfast and lunch. He disagrees with persons that say the homeless come here because of Pine Haven and Carpenter's Corner. Commissioner Tolliver commended those that are helping our residents. Commissioner Byrd stated we need to give people hope by teaching them to fish, not give them a fish and our objective should be teach these persons to feed themselves. Mr. Snyder and the Commissioners agreed it is a complex problem.
